Fleeing the Presence of the Lord

Was there ever a time when you wanted to run away from the will of the Lord, even die, because your way out seemed easier? Many have been there at one time or another.

What's the answer? What are we to do? And what if we don't?

The book of Jonah has answers. It's far more than a whale of a tale!

TAKING IT IN

1. Go to the Lord in prayer and ask Him to show you His purpose in including this account in His book, the Bible.
2. Let's observe Jonah 1 using the Observation Worksheets on Jonah in the Appendix so you can freely mark the text.
 - a. Read Jonah 1 and mark the following:
 - 1) Jonah, including pronouns and synonyms
 - 2) the LORD, including pronouns and synonyms
 - 3) references to time
 - 4) places Jonah went—There's a map in the Appendix. Follow Jonah's adventure by drawing arrows from one location to another.
 - 5) appointed
 - b. Now list what this chapter says about Jonah and the Lord.

- c. Read chapter 1 again. As you read, note who besides Jonah plays a significant role in this account. Mark every reference to this group of men including the captain. Then list what you learn about them.

d. Now read the chapter again and mark the following. Then list what you learn about both.

- 1) presence of the LORD
- 2) evil, tempest

3. Let's return to the mariners and captain and their response when they learn the reason for the tempest. Review your list on the mariners/ captain. Note what happens to their understanding of the Lord from the onset of the tempest to hurling Jonah overboard. How did the mariners determine who the culprit was?

Where Are You Going?

Lesson 1, Chapters 1–2

4. Now we move into Jonah 2, a touching chapter as you will see. Begin reading with 1:17, which will put you into context.
 - a. Continue to mark the references to Jonah and to the LORD. Also mark prayed and its synonyms in this chapter—called out and cried. Mark references to time and sequences. Double underline geographical locations.
 - b. Now, what is Jonah chapter 2 about? Describe it in one brief sentence.
 - c. List what you learn about Jonah and the Lord from this chapter.

Jonah

The Lord

- d. Now list everything you learn from marking prayer in Jonah 1 and 2. Note who prays, what they pray, when they pray, where they pray, and why they pray.
5. Finally, what do you think about what you've read in the first two chapters of Jonah? Is this a true story? Was there really a man by the name of Jonah? If so, was Jonah really swallowed by a great fish, or is this too much to swallow intellectually?
- a. We believe your answers will come by looking at additional statements the Word of God makes about Jonah. Scripture is the best commentary on Scripture. Look up these references and note what you learn from observing the text.
- 1) Matthew 12:39-41
- 2) Matthew 16:4

3) Luke 11:29-32

b. Now that you have looked up the above scriptures, we want to ask you some questions you may have already addressed above. However, the historic validity of events in Jonah is such a crucial issue that we want to make sure you don't miss a thing.

1) When you consider what Jesus said about Jonah, did He affirm or reject Jonah's experiences? Explain your answer.

2) What does Jesus relate the sign of Jonah to as He addresses these hypocritical scribes and Pharisees?

3) If the book of Jonah is not historically accurate, what can we infer about Jesus' death and resurrection?

4) Based on Jesus' comparison of Jonah's time in the great fish and His time in the heart of the earth, do you think He believes that the book of Jonah is historically accurate? Why or why not?

- c. Why do you think people have a hard time believing that everything in the book of Jonah is true?

Well done, diligent one. Tell others the benefits you're receiving from studying God's Word inductively. It's not hard; it simply takes time, but can you spend your time in a better way? After all, if God gave us sixty-six books in the Bible, He deems each essential or He would not have included it. It is our responsibility, then, to study each book for ourselves so that we have the whole counsel of God.

LIVING
IT OUT

1. How does this apply to us?
 - a. Do you believe what you've observed about Jonah? Do your observations give you any problems? Raise any doubts? Write out your thoughts—be honest (you can be with God)!

- b. Do you believe what you've just learned about God? Does it give you any problems? If so, what? If not, why?
2. What do you do when big or small “tempests” come your way? What’s your first move? Second? Go down the line.
3. How well do you know the God to whom you pray? How important is prayer in your life? Is it an essential part of your relationship with God? The answers to these questions are so important. Why don’t you come before God and ask Him to examine your relationship with Him and your prayer life? If you journal, you may want to record what He shows you.

Where Are You Going?

Lesson 1, Chapters 1-2

4. Finally, what other truths can you apply to your life from this week's lesson? What are you thankful for? Has God ever rescued you after you sinned? What do you need to say to Him? How important is a thankful heart before a Holy God?

May we suggest you bring the lesson to a close by meditating on Psalms 95 and 96, and memorizing Psalm 95:3-7a. To memorize a passage simply read it aloud three times in a row, three different times a day. Soon it will be yours.

Where Are You Going?
Lesson 1, Chapters 1-2

JONAH 1

Observation Worksheet

Chapter Theme _____

- NOW the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,
- 2 “Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out against it, for their evil has come up before me.”
 - 3 But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid the fare and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.
 - 4 But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship threatened to break up.
 - 5 Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried out to his god. And they hurled the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten it for them. But Jonah had gone down into the inner part of the ship and had lain down and was fast asleep.
 - 6 So the captain came and said to him, “What do you mean, you sleeper? Arise, call out to your god! Perhaps the god will give a thought to us, that we may not perish.”
 - 7 And they said to one another, “Come, let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account this evil has come upon us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.
 - 8 Then they said to him, “Tell us on whose account this evil has come upon us. What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?”
 - 9 And he said to them, “I am a Hebrew, and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.”
 - 10 Then the men were exceedingly afraid and said to him, “What is this that you have done!” For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

- 11 Then they said to him, “What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?” For the sea grew more and more tempestuous.
- 12 He said to them, “Pick me up and hurl me into the sea; then the sea will quiet down for you, for I know it is because of me that this great tempest has come upon you.”
- 13 Nevertheless, the men rowed hard to get back to dry land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them.
- 14 Therefore they called out to the LORD, “O LORD, let us not perish for this man’s life, and lay not on us innocent blood, for you, O LORD, have done as it pleased you.”
- 15 So they picked up Jonah and hurled him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging.
- 16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made vows.
- 17 And the LORD appointed a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Chapter Theme _____

THEN Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish, saying,

- “I called out to the LORD, out of my distress,
and he answered me;
out of the belly of Sheol I cried,
and you heard my voice.
- 3 “For you cast me into the deep,
into the heart of the seas,
and the flood surrounded me;
all your waves and your billows
passed over me.
- 4 “Then I said, ‘I am driven away
from your sight;
yet I shall again look
upon your holy temple.’
- 5 “The waters closed in over me to take my life;
the deep surrounded me;
weeds were wrapped about my head
- 6 at the roots of the mountains.
I went down to the land
whose bars closed upon me forever;
yet you brought up my life from the pit,
O LORD my God.
- 7 “When my life was fainting away,
I remembered the LORD,
and my prayer came to you,
into your holy temple.
